This is the front of my library.

This is the statue of Lucy from Peanuts in front of my library.

She loves the library THIS much! 💙

This is the east side of my library, where the parking lot is.

This is how the parking lot looks under a rainbow.

This is how my library looks at night.

This is the front desk at my library.

Here I can get a library card, ask questions, and borrow things to take home.

I can get my own library card.

My card lets me use computers and tablets in my library and borrow books to take home.

I can ask questions at the reference desk.

Here the friendly librarians will answer my questions and help me find things to borrow.

This is the children's librarian at my library.

She can help me find the things I'm looking for and answer my questions.

This is the Children's Room at my library.

The children's room has books, audiobooks, and movies.

This is the catalog computer.

I can use the catalog to look for things, and
I can ask the librarian to help me find them.

These are the internet computers I can use.

These are the game computers I can use.

My library has events in the Children's Room.

Here is where I go for Storytime and special events and shows.

This is the Teen Area at my library.

These are the water fountains and bathrooms at my library.

The women's bathroom is on the left, and the men's bathroom is on the right.
